2. How the platform works

2.1 Through this Platform, SportaPost offers services and products (hereinafter referred as "sponsorship deals") from various sport clubs and organizations to corporations and individual persons to purchase. SportaPost does not provide, own or control any of the sponsorship deals that you can access through our Platform. The services or products are owned, controlled or made available by third parties (the sport clubs or organizations). The sport clubs and organizations are responsible for the services and products. Our Platform enables the Users to search and select sponsorship deals which are offered by sport clubs and organizations, as well as an intermediary service which enable the Users to actually purchase the selected sponsorship deal from sport clubs and organizations.

A purchase on this Platform means that You make an order to SportaPost to purchase products or services from sport clubs or organizations for You, which implies a payment obligation which needs to be confirmed by SportaPost. When You purchase a sponsorship deal through this Platform, You will enter into two agreements: (a) an agreement directly with the sport clubs or organizations relating to the supply of the sponsorship deal and (b) an agreement with SportaPost relating to the supply of intermediation services. Unless expressly indicated, SportaPost acts as a Disclosed Agent for You and does not enter into any contractual relationship with You and/or the sport clubs or organizations relating to the services that You purchase on this Platform. 2.4 By using this Platform to purchase sponsorship deals, You authorize SportaPost to act as your agent during the purchasing process with the corresponding sport club or organization, as well as for the payment of these sponsorship deals on your behalf, to the extent as necessary, in order to ensure that the transaction between You and the sport club or organization is carried out correctly. For the supply of its intermediation services, SportaPost will charge You a service fee, the amount of which will depend on the type and value of the sponsorship deal purchased. In any event, SportaPost will provide You with all necessary information and the total price of Your purchase before You will be bound by any agreement and/or any payment obligation.

2.5 Despite the above, note that our Platform may also provide outbound links or microsites to third party's sites so, when You click on one of these third parties sites, You will be leaving our Platform, so these TOD will be not applicable anymore, but the third party's terms and conditions, as appropriate.

If You have the right to be refunded, note that your refund will be processed using the same payment method as used to pay the order. We advise You that sponsorship deals may contain different elements which may not all be refundable. This means that even when You meet the sport club's or organization's requirements to be refunded (according to its Refund Policies), the refunded amount may not be the same as the total price paid to the sport club or organization.

3.3.2 SportaPost assumes that the information provided by You is correct and accurate and will therefore not be responsible if your confirmation of purchase does not arrive to your inbox due to an incorrect email address, or goes into your spam folder.
